

Internship opportunity

Details: Short-term internship (approx. three months)

Location: London or Nairobi

About Sofala: With offices in London and Nairobi, Sofala Partners is an Africa focused advisory company. We provide investors and development sector clients with bespoke research and strategic advice to inform key decisions.

Overview: We are delighted to offer an opportunity to support the Sofala team to deliver complex projects by assisting with research tasks across different workstreams.

What we offer

- Valuable industry experience for individuals interested in Africa-focused risk and strategic advisory.
- Opportunity to work across different markets in Africa and exposure to different parts of Sofala Partners' project pipeline.
- An opportunity to learn how to conduct investigative research on complex assignments on behalf of a wide range corporate and development sector clients.
- Competitive internship remuneration.

What we're looking for

- Degree in related discipline (e.g. political science, international relations, political economy).
- Africa-focused interest and experience and an understanding of the political environment in specific sub-Saharan jurisdictions.
- Exceptional research, analytical, problem-solving and presentational skills.
- Self-starter with the ability to work collaboratively in a team environment.
- Strong writing skills and an ability to communicate complex ideas effectively and concisely in writing.
